

CACRAO Constitution

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE CAROLINAS ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE REGISTRARS AND ADMISSIONS OFFICERS

As amended December 8, 2010

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be CAROLINAS ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE REGISTRARS AND ADMISSIONS OFFICERS (hereafter referred to as CACRAO).

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

Section 1. This shall be a professional educational association, voluntary and nonprofit.

Section 2. The purposes of this association shall be: 1.) The advancement of higher education in its fullest and broadest aspects; 2.) The promotion of professional development of its members; 3.) The fostering of a spirit of unity, cooperation and exchange of ideas through annual meetings, committee activities, workshops, and relationships with the Southern Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, and other professional associations.

Section 3. None of the Association's funds shall inure to the benefit of any private individual or organization except for services actually rendered or goods actually purchased, and upon dissolution any remaining funds or assets shall be distributed to some educational or other charitable or tax-exempt organization.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership shall be five types: (1) charter, (2) full, (3) associate, (4) professional affiliate, and (5) honorary.

Section 2. All institutions which held membership in NCACRAO and SCACRAO in 1971 are charter members of CACRAO.

Section 3. Eligibility for full membership shall include any nonprofit, degree granting (associate or above) institution with post-secondary school education purposes from North Carolina or South Carolina. Voting privileges are extended to each person from any institution granted full membership who is charged with responsibility in the field of admissions, registration, and records.

Section 4. Eligibility for associate membership may be extended to any institution or organization, including proprietary schools, involved with post-secondary education if this membership would be beneficial to both the organization requesting membership and to the Association. Associate membership carries all of the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of full membership, except voting.

Section 5. Believing that professional service should be honored, individuals may be approved by the Executive Committee for honorary membership. Honorary members are nonvoting.

Section 6. Professional affiliate membership may be extended at the invitation of the Executive Committee to professional associations whose interests and activities coordinate significantly with those of the Association. This membership shall allow for cooperation in appropriate activities and for representation of the professional association in CACRAO functions. Professional affiliate membership carries all of the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of full membership, except voting.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of this organization shall be a president, president-elect, past president, a vice president for Admissions from North Carolina, a vice president for Admissions from South Carolina, vice president for Registrars, secretary, treasurer, and treasurer-elect. The officers shall perform their duties as prescribed in the By-laws. They shall assume office at the close of the annual meeting at which elected.

Section 2. The president-elect shall be elected by plurality vote of those present and voting at the annual meeting. This person shall hold office until the adjournment of the next annual meeting at which time he/she shall succeed to the office of president. The president-elect shall serve as parliamentarian.

Section 3. The president shall automatically succeed to the office of past-president. This person shall hold office until the adjournment of the next annual meeting. This person shall be a non-voting member of the Executive Committee.

Section 4. The secretary shall be elected by the plurality of those present and voting at the annual meeting and shall hold office for a period of two years. He/she may not succeed himself/herself.

Section 5. The treasurer-elect shall be elected by the plurality of those present and voting at the annual meeting and shall hold the office of treasurer-elect for one year. He/she shall automatically succeed to the office of treasurer for one additional year.

Section 6. The vice president for Admissions for North Carolina, the vice president for Admissions for South Carolina, and the vice president for Registrars shall be elected by the plurality vote of the membership who are present and eligible for voting at the annual meeting. Their term of office shall be for two years, and they may not be reelected for at least one term.

Section 7. In the event of a vacancy in the office of president, the president-elect shall succeed to that office. A vacancy in the office of president-elect shall be filled by the vice president. A vacancy in any other office shall be filled through appointment by the Executive Committee to serve in that capacity until elections are held at the next annual meeting.

Section 8. Any officer or committee member who as a result of a change in employer or institutional responsibilities and becomes ineligible for CACRAO membership, may continue to participate in CACRAO activities and continue his or her CACRAO duties only at the discretion and approval of the executive committee.

Section 9. At no time shall there be more than two elected officers from the same institution.

ARTICLE V - COMMITTEES

Section 1. The Executive Committee shall consist of the elected officers of the Association and two appointees for each state, being inclusive of traditional underrepresented members. The Executive Committee shall set the time and place of the annual meeting, shall assist the president-elect in the planning for the annual meeting, and shall have authority over the affairs of the organization between its annual meetings. The president, or the president-elect, shall call at least three executive committee meetings each year.

Section 2. Two members at large from each state shall be appointed by the elected officers to serve as members of the Executive Committee. The four members at large should be assigned the duties of planning and executing the following services and events: 1) Mass Communications, including the newsletter 2) Support Staff Workshops for NC 3) Web updates and archiving 4) Support Staff Workshops for SC. Their term of office shall be for one year.

Section 3. The Standing Committees of the Association shall be established and appointed as prescribed in the By-laws. Their responsibilities and membership shall be as outlined in Article VII of the By-laws. Membership in all standing committees will reflect professional, geographical, and institutional diversity and be inclusive of traditionally underrepresented members. At least one member of each standing committee shall be appointed annually for a two-year term in order to insure continuity.

Section 4. The president shall appoint at least one member of the Executive Committee to serve as ex-officio of each standing committee.

Section 5. The president shall appoint all standing and special committees. The president shall designate a Chairperson for all committees of five members or less and a Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson for all committees of more than five members.

Section 6. The Chairperson of each standing or special committee shall submit to the President 30 days prior to the annual meeting a written report of the activities of the committee and updates to the procedures manual.

Section 7. At no time shall there be more than two persons from the same institution on any one standing committee. The only exception to this is the Local Arrangements Committee.

Section 8. Committee appointments should be made to achieve as broad as possible individual and institutional representation.

Section 9. Other appropriate committees may be established by the president as deemed necessary.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. This constitution may be amended at the annual meeting of the Association by a plurality of the voting membership present at the annual meeting.

Section 2. All amendments to the constitution must be submitted to the Constitution and By-laws Committee in writing for its review. All proposed amendments will be submitted to the membership at the next business session with a "do pass" or "do not pass" recommendation.

ARTICLE VII - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure shall govern CACRAO in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the By-laws and any special rules of order that CACRAO may adopt.
