CACRAO Committee Descriptions

Archives Committee

The Archives Committee collects information relating to CACRAO. Here are some examples: annual meeting brochures, committee reports, past business reports, pictures, tapes or recordings, meeting reports, memorabilia.

Budgeting & Auditing

The Budget and Auditing Committee shall be responsible for the development of the annual budget to be presented to the membership at the annual meeting. This committee shall also receive and review the auditor's report and present it to the membership at the annual meeting. There shall be a minimum of seven members.

Constitution & Bylaws

The Constitution and By-laws Committee shall consider and make recommendations to the membership at the annual meeting. The committee shall have a minimum of nine members.

Educational Consultants

The Educational Consultants Committee shall be responsible for making college workshops available for high school students in the Carolinas and will coordinate the selection and training of CACRAO members who will conduct the workshops. The committee shall consist of a minimum of nine members.

Ethics

The Ethics Committee shall be responsible for the promotion of CACRAO Principles of Good Practice and make recommendations consistent with the changes in the environment in which we work. The committee shall have a minimum of nine members.

Inter-Associational Activities - INACTIVE

Legislative Concerns

The Legislative Concerns Standing Committee shall monitor, assess, and inform the executive committee and CACRAO membership of relevant issues of North Carolina, South Carolina or federal legislation. There shall be a minimum of five members.

Local Arrangements

The Local Arrangements Committee shall act as host for the annual meeting. The number of members will be determined and the individuals selected by the Chair. Each will serve until all business associated with the annual meeting is finished.

Long Range Planning

The Long-Range Planning Committee shall be responsible for on-going organizational self-study. Its members shall make sure the membership addresses self-study recommendations and that the effectiveness of implemented changes is assessed. There shall be a minimum of nine members.

Mass Communications

The Mass Communications Committee is responsible for the production and dissemination of information for and about CACRAO institutions and activities. There shall be a minimum of nine members.

Mentoring - INACTIVE

The Mentoring Committee is responsible for identifying and matching new members of the association with members who have been in the field for at least five years, to develop strong mentoring relationships for professional development.

Newsletter

The Newsletter Committee shall be responsible for the publication of a newsletter at least three times annually to inform members of activities of the membership and other matters of interest to Admissions Offices, Registrars, and their staffs. There shall be a minimum of seven members.

Nominating

The Nominating Committee shall consist of the chairperson, the vice president for admissions, vice president for registrars, and eight other members elected by the membership. The Nominating Committee for the subsequent year shall be elected from a pool of sixteen candidates proposed by the membership and/or selected by the current Nominating Committee. No later than ninety days prior to the Annual Meeting a ballot shall be mailed to each voting member containing the names of nominees for the subsequent year's Nominating Committee, with instructions for voting. Those ballots returned as directed within 30 days of the mailing shall be counted as valid ballots. The Committee shall make every reasonable effort to ensure the authentication and confidentiality of all ballots that are returned. In the case of tie votes, the Committee shall make the choice between tied candidates.
